50. Memoriams

Loving memories of my Husband, our Daddy and Granddaddy, John D. Phelps, who left us one year ago September 26.
To know you was to love you. The elderly and the children knew you were never too busy or tired to pass a few words, lend a helping hand or play. Each life you touched is more enriched for having known you.
You fought so hard to live, but God in his wisdom saw best to call you home. The tears may be fewer now, but the ache inside is no less. We miss you so, your presence is ever near. We thank God for having shared part of your life. Your beautiful example of living and giving keeps us going on.
